Presentation: Jacque Burt, President of Idaho Foster and Adoptive Parent Association, The Village Jacque Burt gave a brief history of her involvement with IFAPA and program event overview of the Idaho Foster and Adoptive Parent Association. In 2020, The Village opened give a storefront space for foster children to go to get clothing and essentials that they may need without cost. The Village location is in Blackfoot and serves over four hundred children across sixteen counties and the Sho-Ban tribe in eastern Idaho. The store in run off donations completely, including volunteer staff as well. There are approximately one hundred children served a monthly at this time. Donations come from a variety of sources from senior / scout projects, senior group, church groups to various community partnerships. The Village carries suitcases, clothing items including shoes, essentials, toiletry items, toys, books school supplies (carried year-round) and hygiene products. Jacque continued by describing how the volunteers help with a first visit for a foster child to the Village. It is expressed to be a shopping experience where the child chooses clothing with encouragement to choose at least twelve outfits including two pair of shoes along with a suitcase/tote bag (no boxes or garbage bags used) and other comfort items such as make-up, toys and books.
